

EXPORT-IMPORT BANK of the UNITED STATES

Ex-Im Bank helps U.S. companies to sustain and create jobs by financing U.S. exports.

JOHN A. EMENS

VICE PRESIDENT AND DEPUTY HEAD OF EXPORT FINANCE GROUP

John Emens currently serves as vice president and deputy head of Ex-Im Bank's Export Finance Group. The group encompasses all of the Bank's business units plus business development, operations, and product development. Among his responsibilities, Emens currently is acting vice president of the Business Development Division and is taking an active role in the formation of the Bank's new Special Projects and Business Initiatives Division. He also continues to have a special focus on bringing private sector practices and a client service orientation to Ex-Im Bank.

Emens joined Ex-Im Bank in December, 2002 after retiring from Allfirst Bank (now M&T), Baltimore, MD. During his 26-year career with Allfirst, Emens managed all large corporate special industries and middle market commercial units as well as Allfirst's Investment Banking Division. Among those responsibilities was the management of the International Division, which included Allfirst's Export Finance Division. Earlier in his career, Emens was the general manager of Allfirst's London branch.

Emens holds a B.A. in history from McDaniel College (formerly Western Maryland College) and has served on the college's Board of Trustees since 1995. He is a former member of the boards of the Greater Washington Board of Trade and Greater D.C. Cares, both in Washington. He is also the former Vice-Chair of The Salvation Army Board in Baltimore. He is a retired Army captain who served in Vietnam and received both the Silver and Bronze Star. He is married, lives in Georgetown and has two adult children.

EXPORT-IMPORT BANK of the UNITED STATES

Office of Communications
202.565.3200 • www.exim.gov